

My mural for Chester and Push Horse Rescue in Sonora, California. Sharon, Mark and the other people who work here have a genuine love of horses, and want to share this connection with as many people as possible. These horses either come from situations where the owners are moving and can no longer take care of them, aging horses as well as horses that come from unhealthy abusive situations. Their connection is so strong to all of these horses, that it was important for all of the horses in this mural to represent actual horses on their ranch past and present. For example on the center panel, in the second photo we see Chester on the left and Push on the far right, for whom this ranch/project is named after. Although they are no longer here with us, it was important that they were included in the mural. The horse in the center is 'Magic' who has unique dark blue eyes in the shape of a heart. Q §

In January 2020, 6 months after we received our determination, letter of our 501 C3, we received a phone call from the humane Society and rushed over to meet four beautiful babies that were abandoned without food or water. They were painfully thin, and we desperately wanted to bring them all back to the ranch and nurse them back to health. At this time we didn't even have a trailer to transport them, so the wonderful lady, Melissa, arranged for transport & two wonderful women from Flag Ranch transported these horses to our ranch and then donated a trailer to us. At the time we didn't even have names for them, the person had completely abandoned them so we ended up naming these angels. Hope was the mother, Faith was the daughter, Magic was the baby and auntie rose was the chestnut mare that came along with them. Over the past three years, these four angels have become the heart of the herd. They spend their lives taking care of, and bringing equine therapy to those who have illness or heartache.

For the past 2 years we have been providing equine, assisted learning and therapy for the clients of Watch resources. 10 to 15 clients come out once a week . These clients suffer from autism, down syndrome, and other brain injuries.

We have noticed major improvement in speech, attitude, and happiness, since we started providing this class, Horsemanship 101, from the ground up.

People come from all over the world to experience the Horse Rescue Ranch Experience. We've had people from Portugal, the UK, Chicago, Illinois, and most recently a family came from Rhode Island. Here are some pictures from their experience.

Thanks to “Sierra Angels Car Club”, our sponsors & volunteers & everyone in the community who showed up to support us. ❤️ We love you!

“FAITH” is one of our wonderful Equine Therapy horses, one of the “Family” of four who has now earned her place in our “Therapy” Herd. She loves her guests & is a great teacher. Coming from a terrible situation, she shows us compassion, love & trust, we love you “Faith”.

A Farewell to Mahogany Berry Bey, ♥ a.k.a. Woody ♥

It is with a heavy heart that I share the news of the passing of my beloved horse, Mahogany Berry Bey, affectionately known as Woody. After 25 incredible years together, my loyal friend and companion has crossed the rainbow bridge, leaving a void that can never be filled.

Woody, you were so much more than just a horse to me. You were my partner in countless adventures. Your gentle spirit and unwavering loyalty touched my soul in ways words cannot express.

As I bid you farewell, I take solace in the belief that you are now galloping with your tail flying high, across endless green pastures. May you find eternal peace and happiness in a place where pain and suffering cease to exist.

You will be deeply missed, my dear friend. The memories we shared will forever be etched in my heart. Thank you for the years of love and unwavering companionship. Until we meet again...run free, Woody.

Our sweet Lily left her Earthly body yesterday. She was our Pinto. She had and still does have such a sweet and gentle spirit. I never witnessed any aggression from her toward the other horses. I'll miss her. Love you, Lily! ❤️ Koya

Over the past year we have had the privilege of hosting Children's Birthday Parties. Pictured here is Lina's fourth birthday party with all of her friends from preschool. The children got to brush "Hope" and learn about the horses, and everyone got a pony ride.
